

Mission Statement

We are students working together to improve student life by creating opportunities for balanced lifestyles, promoting health and wellness, and encouraging campus-wide communication and participation.

“at the heart of student life”